Meeting Goals: To bring together worker advocates to discuss ideas on how to create a safer and fairer working environment while combating California's underground economy.

9:30 – 9:40 a.m. Welcome and Introduction: Commission Vice Chair Loren Kaye and Executive Director Carole D'Elia.

9:40 – 11:30 a.m. Discussion: Worker advocates will discuss different suggestions that have been presented to the Little Hoover Commission over the course of its underground economy study process. These will include ideas on how to reduce and prevent labor and employment violations. Stakeholders also will discuss anti-retaliation protections and enforcement strategies, as well as other ideas shared by participants.
